- Provides place settings for all WFL participants for six months. (Plate, cups, napkins, placemats and plastic ware. 3,206 participants in 2014.)

$320 provides the funds for:

- 80 people fed a well-balanced, healthy, nutritious dinner at WFL – Expected results from WFL program are to reduce recidivism rates, help family members and children of prisoners reduce at-risk behaviors and future incarceration, help returning citizens better reintegrate back into society, and strengthen the overall family unit. OR
- Print and distribute WFL quarterly schedules/calendars (8,000 copies) to WFL participants, school counselors, Metropolitan Detention Center (MDC), Gordon Bernell High School (MDC and downtown campus), CNM, fairs, conventions, community events, etc.

$120 provides the funds for:

- 26 people fed a well-balanced, healthy, nutritious dinner at Wings For L.I.F.E. WFL meets 4 times a month for 90 minute sessions. Meeting sites were strategically chosen because of their proximity to distressed neighborhoods and easy access to public transportation. Families eat together, learn manners, and discuss the topic of the meeting through questions on a weekly, unique placemat. Meals are healthy and nutritious and are often the best meal a guest eats all week.

$52 Provides crafts, educational tools focusing on 40 developmental assets[®], and learning activities for 52 children at WFL each year

$20 Feeds 5 people at one Wings For L.I.F.E. weekly program
