What keeps you coming back to Wings For L.I.F.E.?

1. Ann, the staff and all the people.
2. Community fellowship.
3. The various topics Wings speakers discuss are interesting and informative.
4. Learning and meeting people.
5. People.
6. Prayer for others.
7. The more I come to Wings, the more interesting facts that I teach to my friends and family.
8. I love these people and love spending time with them.
9. I look forward to every Monday night – the people, the speakers, the kids, the “Wings Family”.

What do you tell others about Wings For L.I.F.E.? Do you let other people know about Wings For L.I.F.E.?

1. Yes, I tell everyone.
2. All people are welcome, absolutely, yes.
3. When I mention what Wings does for the returning citizen population many are really surprised there are actual programs for this population. I always find a way to mention Wings to almost everyone I meet and to family and friends.
4. Yes, I tell them about WFL, we hear different speakers and their expertise.
5. Tell them there are people from all walks of life.
6. Yes, it's a good organization.
7. Yes, I show the placemats and discuss them with my friends on social media. I do invite others but their always busy.
8. That is a great ministry and is making a difference in lives, both adults and children.
9. Everyone I meet knows someone in their family or a friend who had problems. Wings helps everyone.

What valuable lessons/skills have you learned at Wings For L.I.F.E.?

1. Community and how important it is.
2. Everyone deserves a 2nd chance.
3. Table settings and table manners. How to be more open to hearing other people's life experiences and how certain issues are resolved. Have learned different ways to stay safe at home and when I'm out and about.

4. Various skills, table setting and manners.
5. Social skills that I might miss as an immigrant.
6. Kids are helped.
7. Listening and communication skills. Money management skills, leadership, food preparation, and serving skills.
8. To be more relaxed and friendly with people who come from different backgrounds.
9. I learn "best-practices" every week from the expert speakers and all the people who attend.

What do you like most about Wings For L.I.F.E.?

1. All the people.
2. Community fellowship.
3. That many people attending the meetings are very open about issues other people/groups may find difficult to discuss.
4. Special speakers and learning.
5. The people.
6. Trips.
7. Meeting new people and learning their interesting stories.
8. In one and a half hours, a lot happens. Eating together and meal time discussions. Getting to know others and sharing myself with them.
9. The interaction with people who truly care. I love Wings!

Are there any changes you would like to see made?

1. No, I'm happy.
2. Never had Native American speakers.
3. More trips.
4. No, Wings improves more with each and every meeting.
5. I'd like to see expand to more communities. Every community needs a Wings program.

Additional comments:

1. More appreciation for the many volunteers who consistently assist with all the events put on by Wings. For example like Wings t-shirts, pins with the Wings logo, an appreciation lunch for the core group and maybe name tags. Just a suggestion.
