

FIRST NATIONS COMMUNITY HEALTHSOURCE

5608 Zuni Road SE, Albuquerque, NM 87108

505.262.2481

Family medical care is available by appointment or walk-in basis.

Hours of Operation: Mon – Fri 8:00 am to 9:00 pm; Sat 9:00 am to 1:00 pm (Zuni clinic)

Mon - Fri 8:00 am to 5:00 pm (Truman clinic)

First Nations Community Health Source offers a full range family medical services which include:

- Urgent and chronic care
- Physical exams
- Immunizations
- Flu shots
- Women's health care
- Men's health care
- Prenatal care
- HIV, STD and Hepatitis C testing
- Sports physicals
- Family planning
- Colorectal cancer screening referrals
- Referrals for behavioral health, dental, traditional healing, and other support services
- Well child checkups
- Breast and cervical cancer screenings

We serve all ages and life cycles. Walk-ins and appointments are available. Please call (505) 262-2481.

After hours coverage is available through the Nurse Advice Helpline at 1-877-752-2552.

For Your Visit:

- Come 15 minutes early to process paperwork.
- Bring your private, Medicaid, Medicare, or SALUD! Insurance card.
- Bring financial information (Current tax return or copies of pay stubs) if applying for discount fee programs.
- Bring any medications you are currently taking.
- Bring a Certificate of Indian Blood, if applicable.
- Bring immunizations records.
- Bring information about any medical care you received elsewhere since your last visit.

Dental Clinic

First Nations Community Health Source offers a comprehensive dental program which includes the following dental services:

- Routine care
- Exams
- X-rays
- Cleanings
- Restorative and prosthetic services
- Fillings
- Dentures and crowns
- Emergency and pain management

We serve all ages and life cycles. Walk-ins and appointments are available. Please call 505.262.6547